

VOLUME X, NO. 1

September 1989

Leroy, Michigan, August 29, 1910 -- two little brothers, Elmer Brand, just turned 5 and Herbert Brand, age 3, with their tiny faces pressed to the window waved good-bye to their older sister Stella as the train started out of the station on its way to Coldwater, Michigan. Stella Brand, age 15, was sent to Adrian Girls Training School and the boys would begin their new lives at Coldwater Michigan State Public School.

Stella Brand Thomas was reunited with her brother Elmer Brand in the fall of 1942, but died in 1978 without ever seeing her baby brother Herbert again.

Following is the story of how Stella's daughter, Esther Thomas O'Dell, began a quest to find her grandmother (Henrietta Greene Brand) and found her Uncle Herbert.

JUST A LITTLE SPARK ---WHERE DID GRANDMA COME FROM?

by Esther O'Dell

When I was told by my eldest sister two years ago this summer that our grandmother was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, I was in shock for two weeks. I decided I needed to prove whether she was or not. So I called my friend, Stan Berriman, who taught all my children about Indians in American History at Meridian schools. Stan was thrilled and referred me to Nancy Lackie at Grace A. Dow Memorial Library. I've known Nancy a long time, so down to the library I went -- I was just interested in finding out about grandmother. As I got into searching I found records of the Brand family, but couldn't find out about grandma. All these Brand cousins had lived right around us, and were such wonderful people to have lost track of all these years.

Last fall I got a few of the Brand cousins together to organize а reunion. They came by the dozens, all anxious to meet this crazy cousin. I made the statement that it would be nice if we could find Since he is a year younger than Uncle Elmer, maybe he Uncle Herb. is still living. A lady at the get-together said she thought he committed suicide when his son was killed in the war. I told her I'd have to see it on record before I would stop hunting. She made me more determined to search than ever. I knew the little boys were sent to Coldwater Boys Home and mom was sent to The Adrian Girls Training Center. I wrote the Coldwater Boys Home and they replied they had no records. Last fall I wrote Lansing to the Office of Children and Youth Services and in March, the 14th to be exact, I received the envelope that would lead me to the uncle I had never met.

In the packet of papers I found that the Frank and Elsie Wild family had gone to Coldwater Boys Home and taken my uncle to raise on the farm in Clare, Michigan. So I got my Clare phone books out and there was a Clay Wild listed. I called him, he had me call his mom, who sent me to her cousin and she gave me the phone number of Frances Adams, Frank and Elsie's daughter. When I got Frances on the phone and told her who I was, she cried for 20 minutes -- she was so thrilled. When I asked if Herb was still alive and she said yes, It was my turn to cry. Herb was in St. Louis, Missouri, so I The phone rang and a man answered. I asked, "Is this called there. Herbert Wild?" He said, "Yes." I said. "I have reason to believe you are my Uncle Herbert Brand." All was guiet. Man, I thought, I found him and killed him with shock. Then he said, "Who are you?" I told him I was his sister's daughter. He replied that he wasn't aware of any brothers or sisters. When I informed him he was the youngest of twelve children, he couldn't believe it. I told him I would send him pictures, copies of the family tree and anything else I thought he might be interested in, and that we would like him to come home and meet his only living brother. He said, "I'll catch the train or bus and come and see you in July." I told him he had been put on the bus and train too much already. Two weeks later he called and asked if he could come now. So my brother and I went to pick him up. What a sweetheart of a person -- he sure belongs to He and his brother look and act just alike. He also has my us. mom's humor and many of her actions, even though they were separated when he was 3 years old and Uncle Elmer 5.

We are planning a big Brand reunion this fall and I hope by then I can find that Cherokee grandmother.

Still searching . . .

THE 1990 MICHIGAN GENEALOGICAL COUNCIL SEMINAR WILL BE HELD ON THE 11th - 13th OF OCTOBER IN SOUTHGATE, MICHIGAN

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

First, I want to thank you for the honor of serving as your president for the 1989-90 year. Any suggestions you might have to improve the "Pioneer Record" will be welcome, as well as any contribution articles that you have that might interest our members.

There are some changes anticipated for the future . . . and that is a slight change in the format, utilizing our Logo. This piece of artwork is very well done, and we should take advantage of its clean lines and use it in our masthead.

I would also urge members to consider the trip to Salt Lake City in April. It is an excellent way to expose new members (and also more experienced ones) to the "art of ancestor research". Some of our members will have the chance to experience computers for the first time, and really see all the resources available in one place.

This is the first summer that I have put Genealogy on the "back burner", so to speak. My son, Gary, has been in training for VOA (Voice of America) and he and his wife, Cheryl, plus their two children, will be leaving the end of August for Liberia, Africa. This has been my last time (for a while) when I can enjoy my grandchildren, and I have been taking advantage of that opportunity. In September I will again be into genealogy.

If any of you have any questions regarding future searches, and would welcome another opinion, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Horence Fice 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8

SEPTEMBER 20 meeting will feature Carole Callard, a Special Collections Librarian from the Library of Michigan in Lansing. Keep an eye on the Midland Daily News for coming attractions.

THE ARTWORK for our logo and our masthead was created by Nancy Lackie with able assistance from her husband Bill and his computer. MANY THANKS!!!

HELP NEEDED!!

The Michigan Genealogical Council is preparing to embark on the next phase of the Michigan Death Records project. Death records are photocopied from courthouse ledgers, given to volunteers and the pertinent info is copied onto forms provided. All work is done at home at your convenience. Total names to be extracted will be about 100. No experience needed; the only requirements are being able to decipher illegible handwriting and to print clearly. It is not yet known when this project will actually get underway. I would also like to find a NEW MIDLAND COORDINATOR for this project. Again, no experience necessary; you just need to distribute the forms to the volunteers, receive the forms when completed, and possibly do some rechecking on questionable writing and information. If you are interested in this project, please see me at the September meeting or call me!!
